

Explorer's Class

Lesson 201 (awk:EC201 02.5.12)
January 30 – February 5, 2012

Mon, Jan 30. Read Isaiah 60:1 – 14

pp. 916 – 917

1. What is the “City of the Lord”?

2. (Read Revelation 21:1 – 4) Why are these verses a source of great comfort to believers today?

Tue, Jan 31. Read Isaiah 60:15 – 61:3a

pp. 917 – 918

3. In verse 60:22, when, and how rapidly, will the Lord fulfill this prophecy?
 - a. What replaces the sun, moon and stars as a source of light in the “new world”?

 - b. Why is “then will all your people be righteous” such a profound statement (reference Genesis 3:17 – 19)?

5. a. As God’s people, what should our attitude be?
 - b. What responsibility do we believers have toward other people?

Wed, Feb 1. Read Isaiah 61:3b – 62:5

pp. 918 – 920

6. Who will bring about the change from a wicked world to a righteous world?

Thu Feb 2. Read Isaiah 62:6 – 63:6

pp. 920 – 921

7. a. What is the meaning of the phrase “you who call on the Lord, give yourselves no rest”?

b. How do we do that as believers today?

8. Who would you define as today’s enemies of God who will be destroyed in the future?

Fri Feb 3. Read Isaiah 63:7 – 19

pp. 921 – 922

9. a. Why is it important for Christians today to understand what God repeatedly did for Israel under the Old Covenant (The Old Testament)?

b. How must we apply that understanding in our New Covenant (New Testament) lives today?

Sat Feb 4. Read Isaiah 64:1 – 12

pp. 922 – 923

10. Isaiah prays that God would save His people in spite of their sin. How did God answer that prayer 500 years later?

11. How is “God coming down to us” in our world today?